

Subject to the demands of the fiscal year, to end on the 1st day of December, 1834, which are estimated as follows; to wit:

Brought forward,	.	.	.	$234,443 91
For the current Session of the Legislature,	$45,000	00
the Executive and other Civil Officers,	12,366	67
the Judiciary,	38,870	00
the Militia,	1,695	00
the Library,	525	00
the Inspection of Tobacco,	6,000	00
the Improvement of Warehouses,	8,000	00
the Improvement of the Hospital,	5,000	00
Military Pensions,	14,500	00
Annuities to Indians,	130	00
Donations to Colleges, Academies, and Schools,	18,100	00
Donation to the indigent Deaf and Dumb,	3,500	00
Donation to the University of Maryland,	5,000	00
Donation for the Harbor of Baltimore,	20,000	00
Interest on Loans and Redemption of Debt,	50,915	12
Colonization Fund,	16,921	94
Contingent and Miscellaneous charges,	18,000	00
Which would amount to	.	.	.	264,523 73
And exceeds the receipts of the Treasury by the sum of	.	.	.	$30,079 82